Our Christmas

With the issue of this paper we complete the old year of 1922, and we will await the coming of the first wednesday in January 1923, before we again visit you.

The year has brought its blessings as well as its afflictions; after all, we should be grateful for kind and indulgent friends and blessings and advantages from a divine Father.

Appomattox county is on the up-grade. Her farmers and business men look for better days. This town has made wonderful progress and its future is bright and promising. With all good wishes and good cheer we extend Christmas greetings.

The State Highway Department is getting under contract all of the 1922 mill tax funds collected in December and the balance of Federal Aid. This will leave only Robertson Act money to let to contract until late next spring unless a special session is called and additional funds provided.

The length of the public school term in Virginia last session practically reached the average term for the Nation of eight months for all schools, white and colored, city and rural. This is a new attainment for the public schools of the Commonwealth and represents an increase of one month in the length of the school term since 1910. At that time the average length of school term in Virginia was seven months, according to an announcement given out by the State Department of Education yesterday.

Due to the anxiety of contractors to have work on which to start the new year, the lowest bids of the year were received by the State Highway Commissioner here on Thursday. The unit prices bid on excavation and surfacing were pronounced by contractors to be remarkably low. The low bids received are in line with the statement recently made by Chairman Shirley when he said that if his Department was provided with the money so that the work could be let before spring road building opens up, the State could obtain a material saving in the cost of road construction. The contracts which will be made with the bidders will total $9.0,000

Governor Trinkle was requested to call a special session of the General Assembly at the earliest date possible to provide ways and means of meeting the financial emergency with the State Highway Department leaving it up to the members of the General Assembly to determine the method to be used, in a resolution adopted at a conference of members of the General Assembly advocating the bond issue plan and members of the Executive Committee of the Virginia Good Roads Association held in Richmond, Thursday afternoon. The meeting was presided over by Lee Long of Dante

The signal honor recently conferred upon George W Koiner, Virginia Commissioner of Agriculture, in being elected president of the National Association of Commissioners of Agriculture of the United States, is especially gratifying to the many friends of the Commissioner, this being the second time he has been elevated to this office. This Association is composed of Commissioners, Secretaries and Departments of Agriculture of the States, the organization being largely the outcome of work and personal suggestion on the part of the Virginia Commissioner. Mr. Koiner was chosen first president of the body.

Buckingham

I attended the teacher's meeting at Dillwyn Monday of last week and heard a lively discussion as to where the school and agricultural fair is to be held next fall. Messrs. Twyman, Elcan and Hubard each had something to say in regard to where the fair is likely to be held and a committee was appointed to look into the matter and report at a later date.

Miss Mary Morgan has tendered her resignation as teacher in the "Ivy Hill" school.

The county school board met at the C. H. on Tuesday the 12th.

Circuit court has been in session all the past week; Friday and Saturday the court was engaged in hearing a case in which the last will and testament of a man named Bowser who left an estate claimed to be of the value of about $.4,000. Mr. Bowser left most of his estate to two Foster children whom he had raised, and he appointed a man named Baggs as his executor. Mr. Robert Hundley appeared for the plaintiffs and Mr. F. C. Moon for the defence.

A Mr. Drewry was tried in the Circuit court charged with making an assault on Mr W. d. Spencer the jury bringing in a verdict of not guilty. The old courthouse has been greatly improved by having new carpets and electric lights put in.

Corn is selling for $4 a barrel where the buyer does the hauling and $4 50 delivered.

In paying my taxes I found the tax to be over $2 on the $100 worth of property, while the tax on money was only 20 cents on $100.

Two young men who were students at the high school here left school for a day or two without asking the consent of the principal of the school and he reported these cases to the county board and these students came before the board and stated that they were not aware that they had violated any rule and expressed their regret that they had done so.

Mr. and Mrs. Cabell Robertson and Miss Emma Glover have been on a trip to North Carolina.

We are glad to hope that Mrs. H. C. Groseclose is improving at John Hopkins hospital.

Mr. John A. Twyman was one of the Buckingham people who attended Mr. Flood's burial at Appomattox.

Mr. M. J. Cox has lingered so long in a precarious condition that his many friends have taken on hope for his having a new lease on life.

Mr. John Eldridge who has been actively engaged at the association warehouse at Dillwyn since the market opened has been on the sick list for a week.

Mr. J. P. Andrews has been working at the association warehouse the whole season and he tells of how well pleased farmers seem to be at the prices they are realizing for their tobacco. The long continued rainy spell has enabled farmers to get their crop down in good order and many of them are planning to strip the tobacco Christmas week and have it ready to market the 1st of the year.

Send the Times Virginian to your friend a year as a Xmas gift.

LADY GOT SO WEAK COULD SCARCELY STAND

After Suffering From Many Female Troubles This Lady Heard of Cardui and Took It, She Says, "Until I Was Well."

"SOME TIME AGO," says Mrs. Buena McFarland, of R. F. D. 2, Bostic, N. C., "I suffered a great deal with weakness common to women. I had bearing-down pains, my sides and back hurt, and my limbs drew. I would get so weak in my knees I could scarcely stand.

"I was very nervous, and could not rest. I didn't feel like eating. I grew thin, and did not have ambition for anything.

"I had been trying other remedies . . ., but did not get any better.

"Some one told us of Cardui, and what it was recommended for. I also took a Ladies Birthday Almanac and read of a case something like mine. I told my husband to get it and I would try it.

"I saw a great improvement after the first bottle (of Cardui), so I kept it up until I was well. Now I am the picture of health."

Thousands of other women have written, to tell of the beneficial results obtained by taking Cardui, and to recommend it to others.

Cardui has stood the test of extensive use, for more than forty years, in the treatment of troubles common to women. Try it.

MAKING THEM AMERICANS

How few of us realize the importance of making over the foreigner—of implanting American ideals, ideas and common sense in place of socialistic and maybe anarchistic theories. It means a lot to every American citizen. This work and many other interesting activities of the Department of Labor are discussed in the twelfth issue of the series of beautifully illustrated booklets on Our Government which we have been distributing to representative citizens of this community.

If by any chance you have failed to receive regularly your copies of this series that has been so favorably commented upon, visit us today and from the limited supply on hand we will gladly complete your set.
